

SWEEZEY OUSTS CRONIN FROM MALDEN'S POLICE FORCE

LOVE CALLS EX-WIFE BACK

Old love calls her back. Mrs. Elsie Frances Wilcox of North Dighton, who will marry her former husband, Albert Franklin Wheeler, as result of new marriage. Eight years ago Mrs. Wheeler obtained a divorce on grounds of cruelty. Since then her ex-husband has sought to win back her love, and now his wooing has met success.

COUPLE READY TO REMARRY

Taunton, Aug. 7.—Love—if you recall—is that way. You can ask the two Wheelers of North Dighton, Albert Franklin Wheeler, wealthy, retired, farmer and dairyman, and Elsie Frances Wilcox, the Mrs. Wheeler that was—and incidentally that will be again. Eight years ago Wheeler tickled himself and his wife into divorce court, although Mrs. Wheeler averred that it was the toughest form of tickling she ever had endured—and no tickling for a lady at all. The divorce was granted on grounds of cruel and abusive treatment, and then Mrs. Wheeler, with her former name of Wilcox, returned, picked up her torn nightgowns and her black and blue marks and went out to live her own life. Today, however, it was announced that Wheeler and the former Mrs. Wheeler, both of whom incidentally had been married before marrying each other the first time, will be married again. It is all very confusing—but love is that way.

ACTS TO CLEAR TAX ASSETS

That the accounts of the town of Sudbury should be cleared of all fictitious assets in connection with the tax title account is recommended by Edward H. Fenton, chief examiner of the State Division of accounts, made in T. N. Wadwell, chief of the division. "For several years numerous tax title accounts of doubtful value have been carried on the books of the town," Fenton pointed out. "These previous audit reports contained a recommendation that the treasurer institute proceedings for foreclosure of all rights of redemption as required by law. No action has been taken in this matter although many of the tax title accounts have been disposed of in compliance with the provisions of the General Laws. The proceeds of these sales, however, did not represent the actual cost to the town as set up on the books, and it is recommended that the books be cleared of all fictitious assets in connection with the tax title account. The report further notes alleged irregularity in connection with the handling of warrants and recommends that they be more carefully and accurately prepared and approved by at least a majority of the board of selectmen before being paid by the town treasurer."

Other than that brief statement, Byrd would not speak of activities or discuss future plans. He remained overnight in his home in Brimmer St., Beacon Hill.

CAMERA SEIZED WITH FILMS OF FLIERS

U. S. Airmen Took Pictures Over the Fortified Areas, Nipponese Suspect

Tokio, Aug. 7.—International complications arose today over the landing here of Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, Jr., American airmen, who left the United States last week on a projected round the world flight. The problem created by the landing of Pangborn and Herndon without a permit and the subsequent discovery of a moving picture camera in their airplane was discussed by officials of the home, foreign, navy, war, and communications departments of the Japanese government.

PLANE LOCKED UP

It was reported some officials favored leniency toward the American airmen, while others expressed the belief some form of punishment should be administered.

The investigation probably will require several days before a decision is reached.

CHINA TO BUY ARMS IN U. S.

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Permission has been granted China's Nationalist Government to purchase arms in this country. It was learned here today.

China is one of the three nations against which an arms embargo has been established as a means of preventing revolution, but conditions there have rendered it impossible where the state department felt it would be safe to authorize an export permit allowing Chinese importation of American arms.

Officials of the department refused to reveal the details of the export permit granted China, claiming how large a purchase of arms is to be made, but it was understood that the purchase was large.

It was the matter of an arms embargo which was held here as the cause of the recent resignation of C. C. Wu as Chinese minister to the United States. Wu resigned rather than ask the State Department for the permit.

RIVALS BATTLE FOR U. S. LINES

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—A battle between American maritime interests for control of the United States lines and its fleet of North Atlantic ships located on the Atlantic coast of the Shipping Board continued their conferences on the proposed sale of the lines.

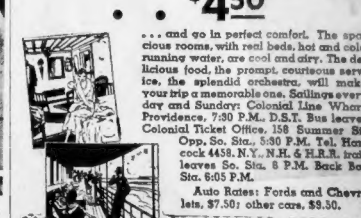

Thus far three groups have been interested in obtaining control of the lines, sale of which is being regarded because of financial difficulties.

One of the principal groups expected to submit a bid for the lines is the International Mercantile Marine Company.

Joseph Sheedy, who has been connected with the United States lines, both as stockholder and executive, informed Chairman T. V. O'Connor of the shipping board that he has raised $10,000,000 in capital for immediate use toward the acquisition of the lines.

A Pacific Coast syndicate, headed by Kenneth D. Brown, is said to have indicated a willingness to have operation of the lines under a plan in which they would not purchase them outright, but would lease them and assume managerial control.

CHURCH WOULD LOSE MILLIONS IN SPAIN

Madrid, Aug. 7 (AP).—A measure incorporating into the new constitution an article expelling religious orders from Spain and confiscating their wealth is to be presented to the National Assembly by the Parliamentary Commission.

The proposal would be embodied in Article 14 dealing with the relations of church and state and would abolish the official religion as well as terminate subsidies for confessional institutions.

The country has 30 Catholic orders, with a membership of 45,000 monks and nuns. The church proper, plus its various orders, owns 500,000 pieces of property officially valued at 75,000,000 pesetas (about $5,000,000). This figure excludes art treasures which interest is worth many millions of pesetas.

When news of the commission's decision was learned there was great excitement. Communists who tried to parade through the downtown streets were charged by police and three were wounded. The Communist leaders were calling for a Red revolution.

Catholic circles, informed of the measure to their religion, inaugurated action which was considered likely to have the most tremendous repercussions since the anti-religious disorders in Mexico.

They are believed to be awaiting the leadership of Cardinal Vidal Baraguera of Tarragona, ranking ecclesiastical figure in the enforced absence of Cardinal Segura Y Saez.

Churchmen contend that the measure reflects the Socialist complexion of the assembly and cannot pass without one of the greatest parliamentary battles in Spanish history. They estimate that 85 to 90 per cent of Spaniards are adherents of Catholicism.

GIRL ADMITS SHE TIED SELF UP

Auburn, Me., Aug. 7.—After a search by police and a posse investigation of the story of a girl dead in the woods was abandoned today.

The girl, Alice Campbell, 19, was found with arms and legs tied by a rope in a ditch beside Turner rd. "A girl in the woods is dead," a deaf and dumb schoolmate of mine told her up," she wrote on a note to Police Chief Harry B. Rowe.

After questioning the girl again today, Chief Rowe announced, he had dropped the investigation and sent the girl in a hospital for treatment. He said she admitted tying herself.

His physician reported his condition as "satisfactory."

BROKER SHOT IN GUN DUEL DIES

Paul T. Lord, 34, broker, died today at Framingham Union Hospital from wounds suffered during a gun battle with police at the Framingham home of his estranged wife yesterday.

Lord was shot twice by Patrolman Benjamin Morse and then shot himself. He wounded Patrolman Thomas Carpenter, who is expected to recover.

The tragedy climaxed a long period of depression for Lord, resulting from business reverses and a two-year separation from his wife and five children.

Under the influence of liquor, gun in hand, he went early yesterday to the family home in Edgemoor, broke his arm and a window forcing entrance and confronting his wife.

One of his children called police, and when Patrolman Carpenter and Morse arrived he opened fire on them without warning.

He was 30 years of age and had been in the real estate business in Boston for many years. He resided in Framingham for 25 years.

MEXICANS HOLD K. C. MEMBERS

Mexico City, Aug. 7 (AP).—Dispatches from the State of Vera Cruz today said that the youth who attempted to assassinate Gov. Adalberto Tejeda had been identified and that several Catholics had been arrested in connection with the crime.

The governor's assassin, who died from wounds inflicted by soldiers, was identified as Jose Ramirez, of the town of Santa Rosa, where it was said he had studied for the priesthood.

Detention of several prominent members of the Knights of Columbus was reported from Oritaba, presumably on orders from the State Government.

Tejeda recently accused the Catholic clergy of being responsible for the attempt to kill him and he would thoroughly investigate the cause and punish the guilty parties.

HOSPITALS FOR WOMEN VETS UP TO HOOVER

Washington, Aug. 7 (AP)—Representative Edith Rogers of Massachusetts said today she had recommended to President Hoover that combined soldiers' homes and hospitals be opened in various parts of the country for women veterans.

Mrs. Rogers, chairman of the House veterans subcommittee on hospitals, returned to Washington yesterday from a three months' survey of hospitals in 24 states and reported her findings to the President.

Traveling several thousand miles by airplane, she was able to spend two days at each of the 43 hospitals visited.

She recommended to the President that a permanent medical corps be established in the veterans' administration to make possible a medical career there similar to the army and navy.

Under the present system the Veterans' Bureau takes its doctors from the civil service register, she said. "They don't stay long. There is no retirement fund for them. The veterans would receive better medical service if their physicians were put on a more permanent basis."

Mrs. Rogers also urged elimination of a great deal of paper work. She said she found much duplication of records kept on veterans.

She said she thought it would be very helpful if we could have some special veterans homes for women.

"They are beginning to need domiciliary care. I think the hospital, the hospital is a good place to establish such a unit."

LINDY EAGER TO RESUME FLIGHT FOR ORIENT

Comfortable conditions prevailed at this trading post, 130 miles west of the Arctic Circle, yesterday, with the sky cloudy and light winds whipping up the water of the Mackenzie.

To the west, however, at Point Barrow, 325 miles away, their next scheduled stop at Nome and at Fort Yukon on the Yukon river, managers said, rain was falling. With this delay, here now more than two days, Col. Lindbergh had become uneasy.

"We are in a hurry to hop," he said. "Not are undecided which way we shall go."

Meanwhile, he again went over his position—equipped monoplane, making more tests, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Urquhart, hosts to the couple, took turns with other whites and Eskimos here in offering entertainment.

In explanation of his plans, Lindbergh said weather conditions would decide their route after leaving Alaska.

Point Barrow was locked by the Arctic icepack, and gasoline supplies for Lindbergh showed the outlook for the trip. A flight directly to the outer Northwest, which is lying 150 miles southwest of Point Barrow, or a flight southwest from here to Fairbanks, or even to Nome, 600 miles away, would be possible.

Buenos Aires, Aug. 7 (AP)—Because of its allegedly subversive activities, the Soviet Amtorg Trading Co. of Argentina must discontinue its business in this country, International News Service was informed today. Alien executives and members of the staff will be deported, it was stated.

Among other things, the police department today revealed that Amtorg had made a bold bid in 1930 for the petroleum monopoly of Argentina.

BETTER TIMES SEEN ON WAY BY EXPERTS

Washington, Aug. 7 (INS).—Summer sales with prices cutting more than has been known for years may stimulate a "buyer's market" and make a strong contribution in paving a way for the end of the protracted business depression, in the opinion of many government business experts today.

After a long period of inactive buying in the field of necessities such as clothing, home furnishings and other articles widely handled by the department stores, there are indications from many sections of the country that those with cash or credit ratings are beginning to "stock up," taking advantage of unusually low prices, feeling that the cost levels of many commodities have reached the bottom.

Those in a favorable position are making purchases now for use as presents during the Christmas season, while others are buying a supply of high-grade clothing at low prices for future use.

EXPERT VISIONS WORLD GOVT.

Williamstown, Aug. 7 (INS).—Predictions between the British public and the dominion members of the British commonwealth of nations are undergoing a change, Prof. Theodore C. Gregory of the London School of Economics declared in an address today before the Williamstown Institute.

Prof. Gregory said the relationship is no longer colored by the spirit of romanticism which surrounded things like the "Rudyard Kipling's character."

Great Britain's preference in past years for India, according to the speaker, was on the belief that severance of connections with India would entail loss of prestige.

Prof. Gregory expressed the opinion that humanity is slowly evolving in the direction of effective world government. He said the great war of 1914-18 taught the necessity of world organization in the political sphere.

HOOVER TO GET NEW 'DOLE' PLAN

Washington, Aug. 7 (INS).—"Unless we do something at once there will be more kinds of legislation for the dole than Germany and England ever heard of," Elias H. Brown cautioned in announcing the Chamber of Commerce of the United States is formulating a comprehensive plan to relieve unemployment.

He is vigorously against the dole system and Federal participation in unemployment relief. He held today that the latest task is for the state, county and municipality to handle.

He and Julius Barnes, chairman of the board, conferred with President Hoover yesterday and discussed the plight of the millions of jobless.

WHAT MAKES PEOPLE MOODY?

Did you know that our health and our moods are closely related to intestinal cleanliness?

When the system is clogged by constipation, poisons are generated. Off in these bring on nervousness and irritability. You feel blue, or become irritable.

The poisons of constipation frequently aggravate nervous troubles, rheumatism, high blood-pressure and heart trouble.

Yet constipation can be overcome by eating a delicious cereal: Kellogg's All-Bran. Two tablespoons daily are guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. Try it with milk or cream.

In cooking use 1/2 cup of the red-and-green package. All-Bran also supplies iron for the blood. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

OLD CAR, BUT IT MAKES HIM FISH

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 7 (INS).—Carlin Peyton was disgusted with his automobile. It was always needing repairs and becoming disabled. It rode like a truck and looked anything but attractive.

He got rid of it by driving it into the Potomac river. It was downhilled to the river and the car ran without much coaxing. Peyton leaped out just before the big splash.

Mayor C. E. Tiger has given him 24 hours to have the machine hoisted from the river and cease menacing navigation.

May Christie

During the vacation of Betty Allen, her daily column, "Beacon Hill," will be replaced by this column of interesting New York society and literary gossip by May Christie, famous English writer, now living in the metropolis and writing of her experiences there.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—One of the coolest spots in New York at this moment is the Japanese Garden of the Ritz-Carlton.

The little stream looks cool and peaceful. The miniature fountain tinkles pleasantly. Bamboo shades protect you from the sun. And the stunted trees and bushes and shrubs give an effect of charming greenery.

Miss Frances Dana Hyde and I lunched together there.

People passing through New York en route from one summer resort to another, or from one country visit to another, usually drop in there...

Chat at Luncheon

Frances Dana Hyde and I had a grand old pos-sow. She lives with her people on upper Park ave., and they have the sweetest place down in East Hampton...

MAY CHRISTIE

"Adana Cottage"... that name being a composite of the joint names of her father and mother.

Mrs. Frank Dana Hyde was Ada E. Thomas.

Hence the pretty name of Adana Cottage!

Frances was educated at the Finch School on East 77th st., and—as is the custom there—spent the last couple of her school years studying over at Versailles, France, at the Villa des Sorbiers. She went in to Paris from Versailles every day to study Art at the famous Julian Academy, for she has real talent in drawing and painting.

"I went from school to see Colonel Kinsburgh last at Le Bourgne," Frances informed me over her lobster salad. "and I also called on the same day he did for New York."

Godmother to Twins

She was much thrilled last week on becoming a godmother. Two tiny twin boys, each of which weighed but four and one-quarter pounds!

To be a godmother at 21 years of age is enough to make any young damsel serious.

They are the babies of Mrs. Russell Robinson (who was Jean Darrow), of E. 30th st. She's very tall and slender, with a piquant little face. In another week she hopes to get down to her people's cottage at East Hampton.

In fact, Jean's mother (Mrs. Darrow) was several times visited by the inquisitive, who would take no denial that she was not a newly-made Bridesmaid, and that she was NOT Mrs. Pitt-Stillman-Fowler-McCormick.

Wife of Flyer

In the Japanese Garden at luncheon, Mrs. Hugh Herndon (Mary Ellen Farley, who was at school with Frances) stopped to speak to us.

She is a slight and pretty blonde girl, and her husband at this moment is flying around the world. He is accompanied by Clyde Pangborn. They had just returned when they intended their first stop to be Russia!

When they did reach Russia, the first thing they asked for when they stepped out of the plane was coffee... and who can blame 'em...

Mrs. Hugh Herndon is a young bride of but three weeks!

I think she showed great courage in marrying on the eve of a world trip of that kind...

She wore a blue and white print dress... and a very cheerful smile.

He is a good-looking blond boy, and his wife looks very attractive. She is petite and dark, with large, beautiful brown eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phillips were a yard or two away, directly across the "gangplank" from us.

Note from Bride

I saw Eleanor Kendrick entertaining at luncheon for Miss Elizabeth Plankinton.

Mrs. Lathrop Randolph sat at a little table on the stream's edge with Mrs. Ten Broeck Terhune.

At another table were Mr. and Mrs. Skeffington Norton.

We saw Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Phillips luncheon.

The bride, Mrs. James Salisbury (who was Mrs. Edward Wythe, of this Plaza, and before that, Miss Lucille Flavin), writes me a very cheerful letter from her honeymoon-retreat in Atlantic City.

She was married to Mr. James Salisbury, in Philadelphia, a little over a month ago.

He is a lawyer and comes from one of the representative and distinguished families of America.

Mr. Salisbury's father was editor and owner of a paper

Fall Wedding

Miss Peggy West, recently engaged Junior League, has gone to stay at the Inn at Ridesford Pool for the remainder of the summer. She is accompanied by her father, Mr. Newell West of Boston st., who announced his daughter's engagement about three weeks ago, to Mr. C. Campbell Patterson, of the shipping firm of Patterson and Wyler.

They will be married in October or November, but the date has not been decided on yet. Mr. Patterson will probably take his bride to live in Brookline, after the wedding trip, as we heard the other day that they were seen dashing all around that attractive suburb, house-hunting.

Trousseau Shopping

At the same time, Miss Peggy was learning to drive, an art that she has never practiced since she was in the "model" T. We sincerely hope that this usually tedious lesson marked the slight degree of happiness we saw literally shining all over her lovely face.

It seems that several of the brides are already getting their trousseaus, and all of them go to New York for them. Now it's Miss Sally Parker, whose engagement was recently announced to Mr. Robert R. M. Barton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Barton of New York, who is over there with her mother, Mrs. George Swinerton Parker. They come down from their summer place, Brookwood, Peterborough, N. H., to stay at the St. Regis while they do their shopping.

Cotton Mesh in Fullers Hosts New Sweaters - at Luncheon

By ANN ARDEN
COTTON MESH is a new material for sweaters. Why call them sweaters then? Well, the people slipped into the word on account of the shape of the things.

THEY FOLLOW those tried and true lines that have been found so very satisfactory for sports wear and as the accompaniment of suits of all characters.

THE MESH fabric is soft and pliable in the extreme. It stretches, it snaps back again into shape. It does not run and it is as cool to wear as a mere waif.

THESE SWEATERS are perfectly shaped. They have that waistline bug-me-light effect that gives a blouse to the upper section. Different weaves show a feeling for design. Necklines are handkerchiefs and little sleeves or armholes are perfectly shaped.

FOR A vacation wardrobe and to tuck in the week-end bag, the mesh pictured is quite ideal. The mesh sweater is in soft pink, the yoke and short sleeves in open-work design. The new short length is streamlined by ribbing fitting the waistline trimly. The white chevron skirt has inverted pleat, long each side front.

THE PINK hat is of crushable fabric. Its attached brim may be tipped up or down. The neckpiece of blue beads, and the group of beads alternate pink and blue. The gloves are of white fabric, with flare cuffs, and the white kid oxfords have perforated trim.

SWEATERS NOW more house-like every day. They are being imported now with little crocheted yokes as well as tiny ruffles. They have surplus necklines and tied cuffs all made a part of the knitted bodies. They will be nice with suits when cool weather comes along and are good as sports things now.

ANN ARDEN will answer questions concerning clothes, social customs, or fashions generally. Address your questions to the Boston Evening American or the Boston Sunday Advertiser or to Station WAAR.

She was in white Jersey dress with a coarse knitted pullover in green with a green leather belt, green cloche hat and a jade necklace. Her long hem-length coat, reaching to the bottom of the skirt was in soft beige suede with a green collar and lapels in the same shade as the hat and pullover.

Pastel Shades

Countess De Bretil, who is a friend of Mrs. P. A. Widener, was in a heavy crepe-de-chine coat and skirt with black trimmings and a cloche hat of white tulle, trimmed with black goigrain.

The Ambassadors have also had the influx of guests. In the evening the large room looks cool and white. There were seen:

GERMAN EDICT ON EXPORTS IS BLOW TO U. S.

Berlin, Aug. 7 (INS)—Drastic curtailment of German imports, seriously affecting American trade, was decided upon by the German government today as a means of preventing outflow of gold from the Reich.

Losses to American producers from the curtailment will approximate $200,000,000 a year, according to current reports. Heated protests against the edict already have been launched by a number of "big" American exporters.

While full official announcement of the curtailment order has not been made, international news agencies understand the government has decided a full embargo on a large number of foreign products, ranging from livestock and agricultural products to various textiles.

Steps taken during the month of July to have it on a limited basis for exportation were not sufficient to meet the demand. If the embargo is complete, the United States will be unable to export its cotton, lumber and foodstuffs, of which Germany alone imported $60,000,000 worth in 1929.

The edict also strikes a blow at the new German law of fashion prohibiting the importation of Paris goods.

STRAWN WARNS AGAINST DOLE

Washington, Aug. 7 (AP)—Fearful of an increase in unemployment next winter, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce has undertaken a study of the prospects with a view to presenting to President Hoover by September 1 a comprehensive plan to relieve the situation.

Elmer Strawn, president of the chamber, and Julius Barnes, chairman of the board, yesterday discussed the employment problem with President Hoover for an hour. Later Strawn said a preliminary report of the study would be made in the coming months.

He predicted that there would be more kinds of legislation to be done than Germany and Japan, and that the United States would be at once made more active in unemployment relief.

It would be deplorable, Strawn said, "if this country ever reached the place where it voted a dole. When we do that, in my opinion, we have hit the bottom as a nation."

FORMER BOSTON ATHLETE IS HUNTED IN DEATH OF BROTHER

FAHEY FACES QUIZ OVER FATAL SHOOTING

Vanishes in Lewiston, Me., After Bringing Wounded Kin to a Doctor

John Fahey, former Boston athlete and now a concessionaire at Maine summer resorts, was sought by Lewiston, Me., police today for questioning on the death by shooting of George Fahey, 42, his brother.

Fahey disappeared from the office of a Lewiston doctor Wednesday morning shortly after he took his brother there suffering from a gunshot wound in the abdomen.

The brother died last night a few hours after police questioned him in Maine General Hospital.

HINT AT GUN FIGHT

The questioning elicited little information other than "you never know any more about this," police said.

Liquor activities of the dead man, including a conviction and $500 fine for liquor selling in Vermont, led to stories of a possible gun fight between him and New York rings of bootleggers.

Chief of Police Harry Ashby would not discuss the first six months after he finds the dead man's brother and questions him.

He said the missing man has been breaking his home with his children, today a widow and three children mourn the loss of George.
